MADERA COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY NAMES ANGELA HILL AS ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY

MADERA, CA. – After an extensive, search, review, and interview process, Madera County District Attorney David Linn announced last week that Angela Hill has been named as the Assistant District Attorney for Madera County.

Hill, a graduate of the University of Washington, and San Joaquin College of Law, began her career in the Madera County District Attorney's Office in 1998. She has nearly 12 years of experience as a prosecutor in Madera, with much of her experience focused on child sexual assault and domestic violence issues. She has also worked in private practice with husband, Bob McGurty, former Madera County Assistant District Attorney.

In 2004, she was awarded the Certificate of Appreciation for Work with Victims of Sexual Assault and Rape, and in 2009, she received the Certificate of Appreciation for Outstanding Service on Behalf of Crime Victims, both from Madera County Victim Services.

She recently returned to the District Attorney's Office in January where she has been serving as Supervising Deputy District Attorney.

District Attorney Linn stated he is sure Ms Hill is the ideal leader to help him improve the Madera County District Attorney's Office and restore the public trust in prosecution and justice.
